This book is more then just a simple source book on the many ways to kill a werewolf. What this book acknowledges as evidenced by the title Spirit Slayers, is that there are more things out there then just Werewolves who change shape. Spirits and Skin Changers are also covered. As the Hunter who starts hunting Forsaken Werewolves will encounter spirits as well and how they deal or try to deal with them. Following the same format as Witch Finders, Spirit Slayers is set up much the same way. Chapter One deals with a wide variety of story ideas, hooks and fitting werewolves and spirits into a historical perspective. Already it's more then just the simple answer of getting silver to kill a werewolf. As once spirits get involved, things can get rather nasty and a Hunter can be quickly out classed by a being who can step into the spirit world and back. Chapter Two takes a look at Hunters and how they might deal with werewolves and spirits from the existing compacts and conspiracies to introducing new compacts and a new Conspiracy. Here I have to take a moment and comment that to me, the most impress of the new compacts is the Bear Lodge, Hunters looking for the ultimate challenge. These Hunters would make an excellent antagonist(s) to use against a cocky or careless pack of werewolves. The Illuminated Brotherhood seemed too much like a bad joke with how they were presented. The Talbot Group is another compact that offers good ideas for chronicles and those Hunters who try to redeem a monster. The Les Mysteries is a good conspiracy with Voodoo Occult ties for dealing with Spirits. Though I can't help but see something of a farce happening. Though it could just be the use of the art throughout this chapter... too cartoonish.
