TYLER (Blake Security Book 2)

Synopsis

TylerSheâ™s even more beautiful than I remember â “ but if I touch her, I know lâ™ll destroy her. When my mother died, all I wanted was to see Arianaâ™s beautiful face. Her sparkling green eyes and sweet nature could brighten even my darkest day, but I was in no shape to see her. So instead I ended up knocking back a few too many beers with my best friend, her brother Brandon. That was the night everything went to hell. Seventeen years later, I still remember the way her beautiful eyes flashed with rage on the day I left town. All I could say was, â œlâ™m sorry,â • and I feel like lâ™ve been saying it ever since. Now, after all these years, lâ™m being called back home. Back to that place of pain and guilt and shameâ and back to her, the most gorgeous woman in the world. The only girl I ever loved. But fifteen years of Army Special Ops have broken me, turned me into even more of a monster than I already was. This visit has to be a simple get in, get out missionâ because if I take one look at Ariana, I know lâ™ll be lost. And sheâ™ll be doomed. ArianaHeâ™s tough but sensitive, scarred but sexy, so familiarâ but not the man I knew. I honestly thought lâ™d never see him again. Actually, we all thought heâ™d died years agoâ but here he is, large as life. Larger, even â “ heâ™s gained a lot of muscle in the past seventeen years. And a lot of scars. Tyler was my first love, my first taste of passion, my first everything. We were perfect. And then, on the worst day possible, he abandoned me. Oh, I got over itâ sort of. There are some things you never get over. And the news lâ™ve been waiting seventeen years to tell him? Definitely one of those things.

I saw one of the story lines coming from a mile away, but I got over it. Tyler's HOT and didn't deserve the hard life dealt him. I can hardly wait for the third book. I read this book first, but I'm definitely going back to read book one. You can get by without doing that, though. I just want to. :)

Tyler and Ariana grow up knowing each other most of their lives. He is her brother's best friend. During his Senior year and her Junior year of high school they start dating and fall in love. Several tragic events occur and they are separated for 17 years while he is in the military special ops. After being injured and medically discharged he is called home by his father's attorney to settle his father's estate. While there at the funeral he sees Ariana with a teenage boy and later learns that is his son.

When I read the blurb I expected what I read but boy was I wrong! I cried! so serious scenes that broke my heart. The story goes from past to present. The prologue drew me in I wasn't sure what to expect. It starts with Tyler finding out his mother is sick and will be dying his father is a drunk and isn't processing it will either. Tyler is starting a relationship with his best friend's sister Ariana, they soon grow their relationship and "I love yous" are said. Things turn a different way and hearts are broken and soon after 17 years pass. This is where we learn more of what Tyler has been doing, he ex military and soon meets up with Blake and does a job for him which gets him a job there. When he goes back to his hometown he soon learns secrets have been kept and he wants answers. The reunion of Tyler and Ariana are bittersweet but then turns to what I have been waiting for. The ending had me gasping didn't know how it would end but they eventually got their HEA. But what is going on with Blake!?

I loved this book...I just wished it wouldn't been 17 years before Tyler and Ariana reunited...7, 8, or even 10 would been OK with me....when they saw each other again though it was an emotional train for me....whew!!

I love when a book can make you laugh and cry to me that's a good author. This was truly a good book to read.
