Awful Intent (Frank Shaw Book 2)

Synopsis

Frank is an Army Special Forces veteran who screwed up, went to prison, and is now out, trying to go straight. He's traveling through Southeastern Utah, enjoying the miles and miles of red-rock desert and wilderness when a man is murdered where nobody is supposed to see. Except Frank does see. He could turn his back, but turning isn't in Frank's nature. Not when the murderous crew begins to hunt him. Not when the sheriff seems to be helping them. And especially not when he discovers the plot is far bigger and more deadly than he could have imagined. Another fast-moving, action-packed, roller-coaster of suspense from John D. Brown. Fans of Lee Child, Robert Crais, and Burn Notice will be delighted by the action, characters, and high-stakes twists.

Damned good read. Spoiler alert. This one starts with Frank Shaw. Shaw is 6'2" and around two hundred pounds. He's an ex con but he's also an ex Green Beret. Special Forces. After he got out of the army he got mixed up with a man and a mess. He killed that man and spend six years in prison for manslaughter. He's out now and holds two jobs. One with a pastry shop and the other at night for Wal-Mart as a stocker. He's on his way to LA to visit his sister Kim and nephew Tony. They have plans but Frank stopped to view the awesome scenery. While using his binos looking at the beautiful mountains, mesas and sky he spots a running man. He also spots a woman chasing him and a white pick up trying to cut him off. Frank isn't sure what he's seeing but he knows it can't be good. The man ends up getting hit in the back of the head with a shovel, wrapped in a tarp and thrown in the back of that pick up. The pick up then pulls out. This is when Frank spots the drone. It's not a big drone and Frank figures this is how they were able to follow the man. Frank freezes where he is and the drone just sails over him and continues on. Having done multiple tours of duty in Iraq and Afghanistan Frank knows all about drones and their capabilities. Frank is trying to decide whether he needs to contact the police about what he just saw or forget it and continue his journey to LA. Frank heads back to where he parked his 71 Nova. A Nova that now has a Corvette engine. Frank bought it used and put it in his Nova. That Nova now has some serious get up and go. The muffler still needs fixing and sounds like thunder but the vehicle is a much better vehicle now. Frank decides to follow that truck and find out where it goes.
