An Imitation Of Murder (Sky High Pies Cozy Mysteries Book 9)

Synopsis

Shortly after Kate Reed learns that her friend, a popular caterer named Pia Lincoln, plans to marry an artist who recently moved to Crescent Creek, the happy couple vanishesâleaving behind a torrent of unanswered questions and conflicting evidence. While the police search for the missing pair, Kate uses her experience as a private investigator to look into the situation. The quest leads to a complex mystery and a series of curious clues, including a hunting knife speckled with blood, a sleek Aston Martin sports car, an infamous Hungarian-born counterfeiter, the delivery van from a local retailer and the artistâs secretive benefactors from New York. An Imitation of Murder, Book 9 in the Sky High Pies Cozy Mystery series, includes a tasty trio of Nana Reedâs Sky High recipes!

Customer Reviews

As always a story you can follow and enjoy along with the characters who make up this story. Nice to meet up with old friends. I wish there was more interaction between the heroine and her boyfriend but I particularly enjoy that the heroine does count on her experience as an ex-PI rather than someone who acts on her own feelings.

So far I've read 9 Cozy mystery books. I've enjoyed all. Wish they were Endless. love the characters ,small town settings. Going to try the recipes. Had hoped that Kate and police chief Walsh got together .Thank you for hours of good company.

All are extremely entertaining and definitely holds your interest. I'm really looking forward to seeing how things progress with Katie and Zack
